1	We have a garage, so parking isn't a problem for us. However, guests can have difficulty finding a place on trash pick-up days.	11/29/2021 4:13 PM
2	I have had some issues since the transition with people not moving trash bins to the front of their house but instead using the side street and blocking my driveway.	11/28/2021 9:59 PM
3	Congested street parking	11/27/2021 1:43 PM
4	The large items in the alley are unsightly, filthy and a real detriment to the appearance of the neighborhood. Sometimes the mattresses fall and block the alley.. especially if there is snow because they alleys aren't plowed or maintained.	11/27/2021 12:11 PM
5	Of course it interferes with our ability to park!!! Do you even know what this neighborhood looks like? That's like asking if a bear shi*ts in the woods. A lack of parking has been an issue and having bins on the street compounds the problem. It is horrible! The alleys should be used!!! It will get way worse everytime there is snow!!!	11/23/2021 6:02 PM

10	Not so far.	11/11/2021 5:39 PM
11	Neighbors sometimes do NOT collect their bins in a timely fashion. They live a half a block away and have to push them to 11th Avenue. The bins remain, empty in the way, and are a hazzard.	11/11/2021 5:15 PM

2	This is a consistent problem. Many houses on our block either don't have or don't use a garage, so there's a lot of on-street-parking. We have a narrow lot and it is common to not be able to place our bins adjacent to our property. Furthermore, when pickup is delayed by a Monday holiday, the cars from the opposite side of the street are often parked on our side the evening before [when we usually set the bins out] because it's street-sweeping day on their side--making it even harder to find a spot for the bins. And last, also when the pickup is delayed by a Monday holiday, our bins are out on our street-sweeping day, which is a hassle for everyone: us and the streetsweepers! It seems like getting the schedules coordinated would be at least a reasonable start to fixing some of these issues.	11/29/2021 4:13 PM
3	With all the street parking we often lose space to put out compost and recycling containers.	11/27/2021 12:11 PM
4	YES! Every week we have to find a place to put our bins. This is absolutely ridiculous and so unnecessary when there are perfectly fine alleys that should be used for this purpose.	11/23/2021 6:02 PM
5	Usually not a problem, but I occasionally have someone park close enough to my driveway that I have to place my bins in a different area along St Paul street	11/22/2021 10:25 AM
6	PUT THE TRUCKS BACK IN THE ALLEYS !!!!	11/12/2021 7:23 AM

1	This is certainly a possibility, though it hasn't occurred yet. To compound the issue, our block has an exceptionally narrow alley--which is why we always had to set out recycle & compost bins in the street--only manual pickup trash trucks fit in our alley.	11/29/2021 4:13 PM
2	Good point. Not sure since it hasn't snowed this year.	11/28/2021 9:59 PM
3	We are storing bins by front porch -which is extremely unpleasant to host guest on front patio	11/27/2021 1:43 PM
4	OMG! We need the alley plowed!	11/27/2021 12:11 PM
5	When it snow, of course we will have trouble getting trash to the street! The end of the alley is NOT an option as it is too far to move bins. I seriously hope that telling people to put their bins at the end of the alley is not an option.	11/23/2021 6:02 PM
6	I have no alley access from my property, so my trash pickup has always been curbside.	11/22/2021 10:25 AM
7	I keep my bins (purple and black) on my property, not in the alley, as I was told we couldn't leave them in the alley.	11/12/2021 8:30 AM
8	DRAGGING A HEAVY TRASH BIN THRU 4-6 INCHES OF SNOW HALF WAY UP THE ALLEY. REALLY, WHAT ASSHOLE THOUGHT UP THE REMOVING TRASH PICK UP FROM THE ALLEYS. HAVE LIVED AT THIS ADDRESS FOR 40 YEARS	11/12/2021 7:23 AM
9	I dread winter snows and dragging the trash bins to the street.	11/12/2021 5:47 AM
10	I do not use an alley.	11/11/2021 5:39 PM
11	Bins now in front yard but will be impossible to park and charge my ev car if alleys have deep snow	11/11/2021 4:01 PM

1	Didn't know it was offered by city- had to ask neighbor for help when husband was out of town	11/27/2021 1:43 PM
2	We don't but this is an issue for older neighbors who are not physically able to drag their bins to the street.	11/23/2021 6:02 PM
3	BUT I WILL COME WINTER. I AM NOT GOING TO PULL OUT MY BACK, SLIP ON ICE BECAUSE THE CITY MANAGERS ARE IDIOTS	11/12/2021 7:23 AM
4	Didn't know such assistance is available.	11/12/2021 5:47 AM
5	Yes, and they did provide assistance for our regular trash bin, but I find it inconvenient on trash days to park on our streets. Also, it is such a pleasure see all the trash cans setting on our pretty street, trashing up what used to be a beautiful neighborhood. I will admit it makes it easier for the vagabond vans to park in Congress Park without being noticed as much.	11/11/2021 4:09 PM

1	street sweeping interference Other issues "no"	11/30/2021 10:25 AM
2	Definitely interfering with street-sweeping as noted above. And it is certainly difficult to maneuver the bins down the stairs to the street--especially for older folks or those with some medical conditions.	11/29/2021 4:13 PM
3	Not sure they're interfering with safety but definitely interfering with large item pickup. Where is that supposed to go now?!?	11/27/2021 3:55 PM
4	Of course! It is a huge nuisance and unsightly change that the city has imposed. Please change this stupid policy and have trucks go down the alleys. This will be HORRIBLE this winter because the streets will literally get trashed. Moving the bins to the street was an excellent way to make our neighborhood look bad. I would hope the city could use the taxes that we pay to at least not make our neighborhood streets trashy.	11/23/2021 6:02 PM
5	I AM LUCKY THEY ARE STILL PICKING UP IN MY ALLEY	11/17/2021 1:33 PM
6	For me, "only" a problem with street sweeping	11/11/2021 8:58 PM
7	Running snow plows down the alleys (which have never been done before) is more dangerous than trash trucks with regard to the high-profile of the vehicles. That would be trading one bad decision for another. ALLEY PICK UP PLEASE. My husband and I are natives, we are in are early 50s and we have never heard such nonsense as entire blocks of folks carting trash bins to the street side.	11/11/2021 5:15 PM
8	more concerned with safety of citizens trying to get the bins down steps and down the alley for curbside pickup	11/11/2021 4:07 PM
9	Trash collection should have remained in the alley	11/11/2021 4:05 PM
